V. Brief Summary of Events/ Sessions

The Essay Writing Competition organized by the Department of Economics, Rajarshi Shahu Mahavidyalaya, Latur (Empowered Autonomous Institute) on 13th October 2025 witnessed enthusiastic participation from students. The event was conducted in a systematic and disciplined manner, ensuring equal opportunity for all participants. The topics provided for the competition were related to current social and economic issues, encouraging students to think critically and express their views effectively.

The programme began with a short introduction by the organizing faculty, where the rules and guidelines were clearly explained. Students were given a fixed time duration to complete their essays. During the competition, the atmosphere remained calm and focused, reflecting the seriousness and dedication of the participants. The essays were later evaluated by faculty members based on originality, clarity of thought, content quality, and presentation.

The competition helped students enhance their writing skills and broaden their understanding of important issues. It also encouraged them to present their ideas in a structured and meaningful way. Overall, the activity proved to be educational, engaging, and successful in fulfilling its objectives. Students from UG and PG participated in the competition. This competition was examined by Dr. B. P. Gadekar (HoD), Prof. J. H. Gaikwad, Prof. R.N. Jadhav and Prof. N.R. Walke.
