Poster presentation competition

II. Introduction

The Department of Economics, Rajarshi Shahu Mahavidyalaya, Latur, (Empowered Autonomous Institute) organized a Poster Presentation Competition on 15 October 2025 to promote active learning and student engagement. The program aimed to encourage students to explore economic concepts through creative and visual methods. Poster presentations help students simplify complex ideas and present them effectively. The activity also provided a platform for students to develop research skills, analytical thinking, and communication abilities. Various topics related to economics such as Crypto currency, Traditional and Modern Sources of Savings and Investment, International Trade and Digital Payment were selected. The program created an interactive academic environment that motivated students to participate enthusiastically.

III. Objectives of Poster Presentation Competition

- ❖ To bring about personality development of students.
- ❖ To improve the conceptual level of students.
- ❖ To giving opportunities to students' Extra talents.
- ❖ To enhance creativity and presentation skills.
- ❖ To improve communication and explanation abilities.
- ❖ To encourage active participation in academic activities.

V. Brief Summary of Events/ Sessions

The Poster Presentation competition organized by the Department of Economics, Rajarshi shahu Mahavidyalaya, Latur (Empowered Autonomous Institute) on 15 October 2025 was conducted successfully with enthusiastic participation from students. The program provided a platform for students to present their understanding of various economic concepts through creative and visually appealing posters. Topics such as Crypto currency, Traditional and Modern Sources of Savings and Investment, International Trade and Digital Payment were covered by participants. Students used charts, graphs, and illustrations to make their presentations more effective and engaging.

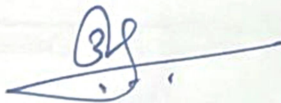

During the activity, each participant explained their poster in detail and responded to questions asked by faculty members and fellow students. The evaluation was based on content accuracy, clarity of explanation, creativity, and overall presentation skills. The event encouraged healthy competition and active involvement among students. It also helped in improving their confidence, communication skills, and analytical thinking.

The program created an interactive and dynamic learning environment where students could exchange ideas and gain deeper insights into economic issues. Overall, the Poster Presentation activity proved to be highly informative and beneficial, contributing to the academic growth and skill development of students. This competition was examined by Dr. Gadekar B.P., Prof. J.H. Gaikwad, Prof. R.N. Jadhav and Prof. N.R. Walke.

VI. Conclusion on the Programme

The Poster Presentation activity proved to be a successful and enriching experience for students. It enhanced their understanding of economic concepts and improved their research and presentation abilities. The program also boosted students' confidence and encouraged creative learning. Such activities play a vital role in academic development and should be organized regularly to foster innovation and active participation among students.
