v. Brief Summary of the Program:

The Department of History organized an educational study tour at Shivneri Fort at Junnar, Naneghat, Ozar, Lenyadri Caves and Shri. Ganesh Cave Temple. All places are in Pune district. It was organized on 29th January 2023.

A. Shivneri Fort at Junnar:-

It is a fort in Junnar Taluka and Pune District. The fort has a lot historical importance in history. On 19th February 1630, Rajmata Jijabai gave birth to a child at the fort. Later, he founded, Hindavi Swaraj in Deccan. He is Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj. So, being a birth place of the great King Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj, Shivneri Fort has a lot importance. The fort has been built Sahyadri Mountain range. Shivneri fort is surrounded by a slope on all sides. The shape of the Shivneri fort looks like an attractive Shiva-pinda. Shivneri Fort was ruled by many rulers like Shilahar, Bahamani, Yadav, Mughal Empire and later Maratha Empire. Shivneri Fort is a hill fort which is triangular in structure. The entrance to the fort is on the south-west. A mud wall has been built around Shivneri fort. The main buildings in the interior of this impressive fort are prayer halls, tombs and mosques. Badami Lake and two waterfalls Ganga and Yamuna are popular among tourists.

B. Naneghat:-

It is one of the oldest historical places in Maharashtra. It is in Pune district. It is located in Sahyadri Mountains. This is a route which was dug in mountain in Satavahana period. This ghat was dug connecting Desh and Konkan to make it convenient for trade. This excavation was done in the first century BC. One end of this route is upstream towards Junnar, the other downstream in Konkan in Murbad taluka. The Ghat famous for the inscription by Nagnika. She was queen in Satavahana dynasty. She carved an inscription in a cave in Naneghat. The inscription gives detailed information about the rule and rulers of Satavahana Dynasty.

C. Ozar:-

The place is famous for the temple of Lord Ganesha. It is known as Lord Vighneshwara. It is one of the Ashtvinayaka in Maharashtra. The temple of Lord Ganesha is situated on the banks of river Kukadi.

D. Lenyadri:-

The place has spiritual as well as historical importance. There is temple of Lord Ganesha which is known as Lord Girijatmaj. The idol of Lord Ganesh is in a cave which has been dug in mountain. Lenyadri is also famous for the Buddhist caves. Lenyadri Buddha Caves is surrounded by Sahyadri mountain ranges on almost all sides in Junnar Taluka of Pune District and in the very mature and strong basalt rocks of these ranges, many Buddhist rock carvings are found.

v. Conclusion with feedback:

The students enjoyed the educational study tour but more than they were more happy as the good visit the historical places which they had studied and read in the books. The visit at Shivneri Fort was very happy moment for the students as it is the birthplace of their ideal Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj. Students got amazing experience while visiting the ancient historical places like Naneghat and Lenyadri.
