v. Brief Summary of the Program:

The Department of History organized the 192nd Birth Anniversary of Savitribai Phule on 3rd January 2023. Savitribai Phule was the great social worker and first Lady Headmistress in India. She was born on 3rd January 1831. Her husband, Mahatma Phule, opened first school for girls in India. She was illiterate before her marriage. She learnt reading and writing after her marriage. Her husband was her teacher. Four students expressed their views on the occasion of the Birth Anniversary. They were Miss. Dnyaneshwari More, Miss. Rajkanya Fawade, Mr. Samyak Kolhe, Mr. Saurabh Borade and Mr. Prashant Panchal. All of them have detailed information about the life of Savitribai Phule. Dr. Rahul More addressed the students. He compared the present situation and the then situation. He told the students that in very adverse condition, Savitribai Phule took the education. She faced many problems while teaching the girls, despite this she didn't give up. Today, the students have every facility, but there is lack of punctuality, regularity and seriousness about the study. Students should take the motivation from the life of Savitribai Phule. Lt. Dr. Archana Tak presiding addressed the students. She said that the life of Savitribai Phule was full with problems. She had to bear opposition from the society and her family. Though she had to face problems, she was firm on her commitment. She taught education to the girls. Miss. Komal Rathod hosted the program. Mr. Shivhar Shinde expressed vote of Thanks.

vi. Conclusion of the program:

The Students learnt the struggle in the life of Savitribai Phule. She not just fought against social injustice, but her work in the field of women's education paved the way for generations of women to seek knowledge and economic independence that helps to be educated and understand the real meaning of Democracy.
