Introduction:

Public Administration is an independent branch of study in the social science. It has recent origin. Traditionally Public Administration was considered as a part of political science. But in Modern age the nature of state has changed as service state from bureaucratic state. It has an important role in the formulation of public policy at all levels, from national to grassroots. Students, while studying any subject, it is necessary to know its background.

Objectives of the Programme / issues addressed:

- 1) Introducing the subject to the first year students.
- 2) Acknowledging the students an opportunity after studying the subject.

Details of Participants:

Totally 36 Students were present.

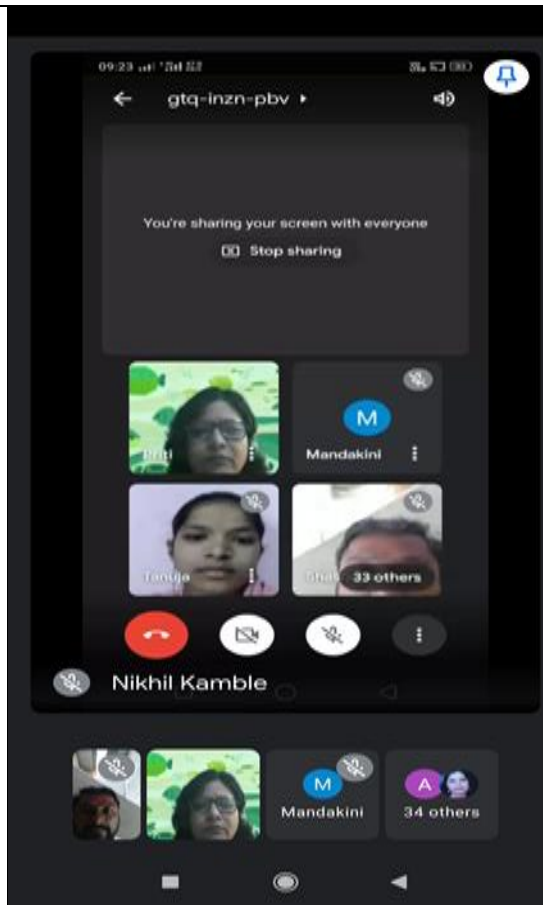

Brief Summary of Events/ Sessions:

Prof. Priti Pohekar, Head of Department welcomed all the students. Ms. Neha Kamble, Student of Class First year inaugurated the program. Prof. Pohekar introduced the subject. She explained how the subject is originated, it's scope and delivered talk on opportunities. Mr. Bansode also elaborated an importance as well as opportunities of the subject. He also put the regular activities conducted by the department as well as up-coming activities.

Conclusion, with Feedback on the Programme:

The students were enlighten about the importance of subject and were happy on choosing Public Administration as an optional subject.
