B) Report

i. Title: Guest Lecture on Administrative Skills under Kautilya Lecture Series – Lecture 4

ii. Introduction:

Administrative skills can help to be well organized, a strong communicator and enhance service skills. Administrative skills are important in administrative roles like office managers, peons' and at all levels.

iii. Objectives of the Programme/issues addressed:

- a. Giving a closer look at what administrative skills are.
- b. Knowing the importance of administrative skills.
- c. Improving the skills for administrative exams and services.
- d. Improving soft skills in day to day life.

iv. Details of Participants:

226 participants joined the guest lecture online. Students from the department and outside the department attended the guest lecture.

v. Brief Summary of Events/Sessions:

Any person who works in the office right from Head of the organization to Peon is the part of administrative. Administrators need to work as a team, said Anjali Dhanorkar. She categorized the skills as hard and soft, and stressed on the soft skills, how those are supportive in smooth working. She also focused on how the female administrator should manage at workplace as well as at home. In her speech, she thoroughly covered the skills, communication, time management, stress management.

vi. Conclusion with Feedback on the Programme:

Improving administrative skills can help to have a stronger work ethic by completing tasks in a punctual and quality manner while working well with others.
