

. Social Survey on Women and Education in slum area

Social Survey on Women and Education in slum area” was organized by the department of sociology on the date of 4-3-2020. Students of department of sociology (B.A.T.Y.) with teaching faculties Sayali Samudre and B.C. Bokade visited to Coil Nagar slum area and they actively Participated in this social survey. After interaction with women living in slum area, student got knowledge about social realities of grassroots level. they observed that there is a lack of education in women’s, that’s why they have to face lot of social, educational, economical, family problems. After these activity students realized that education is most required thing to solve various social Problems. Total 11 students participated in this activity.

