v. Brief Summary of Events/ Sessions: -

This thematic guest lecture was organized by the Department of Sociology, it highlighted the values of Mahatma Phule within the context of women. The guest lecture was conducted by Mrs. Uma Vyas. The guest lecture started by Ms. Sayali Samudre, followed by Ms. Sayali Samudre giving introduction of the resource person Mrs. Vyas. Further program was taken over by Mrs. Vyas, wherein she began with her lecture. She began with telling the students about Mahatma Phule, on whose birth anniversary the program was conducted. She talked about their values and how students should hold them up as idols for living a dedicated and equal life. She also made students understand about how women today are underestimated by men. She pointed out how we make false promises for women, giving them illusions of their freedom, making them feel satisfied about their current lives. But in reality they are being oppressed again and now with their consent. She also highlighted how women themselves are involved in holding other women back. The floor was opened to discussions later on, where we heard quite good questions and comments from the participants. The program was concluded with vote of thanks presented by Ms. Divya Karwa.

vi. Conclusion: -

The guest lecture was successful and an enriching experience for the participants. The Question and Answer round was quite interesting as we got to know about many different views and understanding of students.
