B) Report

i. Title:

Students Seminar on Women's Education and Women Empowerment

ii. Introduction:

Department of Sociology had conducted a class level seminar for the students. The Department had called upon the participants to talk about Women's Education and Women Empowerment.

iii. Objectives of the Programme/ issues addressed:

1. To help participants understand importance of Women's Education and Women Empowerment.
2. To help them achieve the confidence of speech
3. To help them to overcome their stage fright.
4. To help them understand how they can improve themselves and come back better.

iv. Details of Participants:

Our students enthusiastically participated in the seminar and gave their best.

The List of the Participants is attached.

v. Brief Summary of Events/ Sessions:

The event was a class level seminar. The students from third year were part of this activity. The student took to the stage to talk about women empowerment and women's education. The students were very keen and they presented their topic quite well. After all the seminars the convener and co-convener gave their own views and feedback to the students about their seminars. The activity was conducted to help students to develop their personality and public speech. Department had focused on getting the best out of the students and also make space for them to improve as well.

vi. Conclusion, with Feedback on the Programme:

The seminar was a success as it had garnered participants and interaction beyond the expectation of the department. The students tried their best to give articulate information about the topic. The language used was understandable and there was clarity in the speech. Overall, the success of the seminar was not about the enrollment in the seminar, it was about the knowledge that was imparted and gained by the participants in the seminar.

vii. Any Appendix If Necessary:

List of participants is attached.
