i. Title: -

One Day Workshop on Preparation for PG entrance in Sociology and Social Sciences in Central Universities

ii. Introduction: -

Department of Sociology had conducted a workshop on educational theme. The Department had called upon Dr. Anurekha Chari-Wagh to talk to our students. The theme of the workshop was to help students to understand the PG entrance process for central universities.

iii. Objectives of the Programme/ issues addressed: -

1. To help students understand about what happens in central universities.
2. To let them know how central universities are different from their current environment.
3. To introduce to them the ways in which they can prepare themselves to be a part of the central university.
4. To help them understand how to be involved and make themselves brighter with the resources available.
5. To give an understanding of how the university admissions work and how you can make yourselves part of it.

iv. Details of Participants: -

. 01 Male Teacher and 02 Female teacher and 14 students total 17

Participants participated in program.

The List of the Participants is attached.

v. Brief Summary of Events/ Sessions:

The event was organized on the Zoom app. The session began with co convener and anchor Bhagavant Bokade welcoming the guest. Further, the resource person Anurekha Chari-Wagh was felicitated and welcomed by the Head of the Department, Sayali Samudre. Sayali Samudre then introduced our resource person and gave our students a brief idea about her work.

The resource person then began with her session. She talked about a range of things related to central universities and how the education system works in those universities. She told our students what central universities can do for them. She described to them what and how they can be more aware about the process and how they can get themselves into those universities. She also gave advices on how to be more educationally aware for today and for future. The program ended with vote of thanks given by Mr. Bhagavant Bokade.

vi. Conclusion: -

The workshop was a successful as it had motivated participants. Interaction session in the workshop was beyond the expectation of the department. The resource person was very clear with her ideas about the session, so students got clarity about the topic.
