B) Report

i. Title: -

One Day Workshop on Indian Legislations and Gender Equality on the occasion of International Women's Day

ii. Introduction: -

Department of Sociology had conducted a workshop on the occasion of International Women's Day. The department had called upon Ad. Meera Kulkarni to talk to our students. The theme of the workshop was to make students aware about legislations and gender equality in them.

iii. Objectives of the Programme/ issues addressed: -

1. To help students to understand legislations in India
2. To integrate gender equality and gender sensitization into their minds
3. To introduce them the laws and how it is used or misused
4. To help them understand how to be independent and keep yourself safe
5. To give an understanding of how the laws work and how you can use them

iv. Details of Participants: -

01 male teacher, 02 two female teachers ,01 Non- Teaching Staff and 35 Students, total 39 participants participated in this program.
The List of the Participants is attached.

v. Brief Summary of Events/ Sessions: -

The event was organized in the Auditorium of Rajarshi Shahu Mahavidyalaya (Autonomous), Latur. The session began with co convener and anchor Bhagavant Bokade welcoming the guest. Further, the resource person Ad. Meera Kulkarni was felicitated and welcomed by the Head of the Department, Sayali Samudre. The welcome song was presented by Mandakini Narwade, first year BA student. Sayali Samudre then introduced our resource person and gave our students a brief idea about her work.

The resource person then began with her session. She talked about a range of things related to legislation, to women and to gender equality and gender sensitization. She told our students what laws are present today for us. She described to them what and how they can use these laws and be safe. She also gave them advices on how to be a precautionary for today and for future. The program ended with vote of thanks given by Miss. Priyanka Ladlapure from third year.

vi. Conclusion: -

The workshop was a successful as it had inspired participants. The interaction session was beyond the expectation of the department. The resource person was very clear with her ideas about the topic, so students got clear understanding about the topic with social sense.
