B) Report

i. Title:

National Workshop on Social Sciences and Social Research

ii. Introduction:

. The Department of Sociology had organized a one-day national workshop for Academicians, Researchers, Students and the Teaching Faculty. The resource person called for the workshop was Dr. Anurekha Chari-Wagh, who is an associate professor in the Hyderabad Central University, Hyderabad. The theme of the workshop this year was Social Sciences and Social Research.

iii. Objectives of the Programme/ issues addressed:

The aim of the workshop was to create a bridge between social sciences and social research, to understand why it is very important to work on research in social sciences today. The main aim of the theme was to impart the participants with the knowledge about the research and how it is to be done, the other section of the workshop was equally important as it guided the participants about the ethics which are required to conduct any kind of research. The objective of the workshop was to highlight the importance of research in today's world and how the new generation should be looking towards research in ethical manner. The relation of ethics in social research is a crucial one and the workshop designed itself around telling the participants about the same.

iv. Details of Participants:

. We have got huge response from all over the India. Academicians, teaching faculties, Researchers, and students gave nice response to the workshop and participated very enthusiastically in interactive session

v. Brief Summary of Events/ Sessions

This thematic workshop was organized by the department of sociology, it highlighted the importance of social research in today's social sciences. The workshop was conducted by Dr. Anurekha Chari-Wagh. The workshop was conducted in two sessions, back to back. The first session outlined the process of conducting a research, how a research is conducted, what are the components of any research process, how to work on the research, the methodologies which are important for research, the ways in which any scholar or a student should go about the research. The second session was all about the ethics. The resource person talked extensively on the importance of ethics, she gave an outline of five points on why ethics should be a must in every research. She also highlighted how using ethics in research makes us more honest and hardworking in our lives as well.

vi. Conclusion, with Feedback on the Programme:

The workshop was a successful workshop as it had garnered participants and interaction beyond the expectation of the department. The resource person was very clear, audible and was very articulate about the session. The language used was understandable and there was clarity in the speech. The Question and Answer round was quite interesting as we got to know about many research scholars and their work, their working styles as well. Overall, the success of the workshop was not about the enrollment in the workshop, it was about the knowledge that was imparted and gained by the participants in the workshop.
