i. Title: -

Inauguration of 'Pratibimb' Sociology Student Association and Workshop on Professional Skills and Student Life'

ii. Introduction: -

The Department of Sociology had organized a program on the event of inauguration of student association 'Pratibimb' for the students of the department. A workshop was also organized with the inauguration program; the resource person of the workshop was Shankar Jadhav. Shankar Jadhav is an alumni of the sociology department. He is a dignitary, who has been working in the social sector and being a Placement Officer he told to students that it was a good choice for them. The theme of the workshop was 'Professional Skills and StudentLife'

iii. Objectives of the Programme/ issues addressed: -

- The major objective of the program was to declare the Student Association for the year 2021-22.
- The objective of the workshop was to help students understand how a professional life actually is.
- Workshop was also aimed to introduce the concept and use of life skills in their life.
- It also focused on how student behavior and actions in their formative years will help them in their own future life.

iv. Details of Participants: -

We got a response from our students. Total 42 Participants attended this Program. 01 Male Teacher and 2 Female Teacher and 39 students Participated in this program.

v. Brief Summary of Events/ Sessions: -

The program had started by Ms. Sayali Samudre. The program was then carry forwarded by Mr. Bhagavant Bokade inviting Mr. Shankar Jadhav to begin with his workshop. Mr. Jadhav talked about how a student life is all about, he had a heart to heart conversation with the students sharing his experiences of his college life. Explaining to the students on what life skills should be acquired and where should we focus on in our formative years. He explained about all the sectors available to the students, and he also shared his placement and work life experiences. The Program ended with a vote of thanks by Ms. Maya Sonkamble, President of the Student Association

vi. Conclusion: -

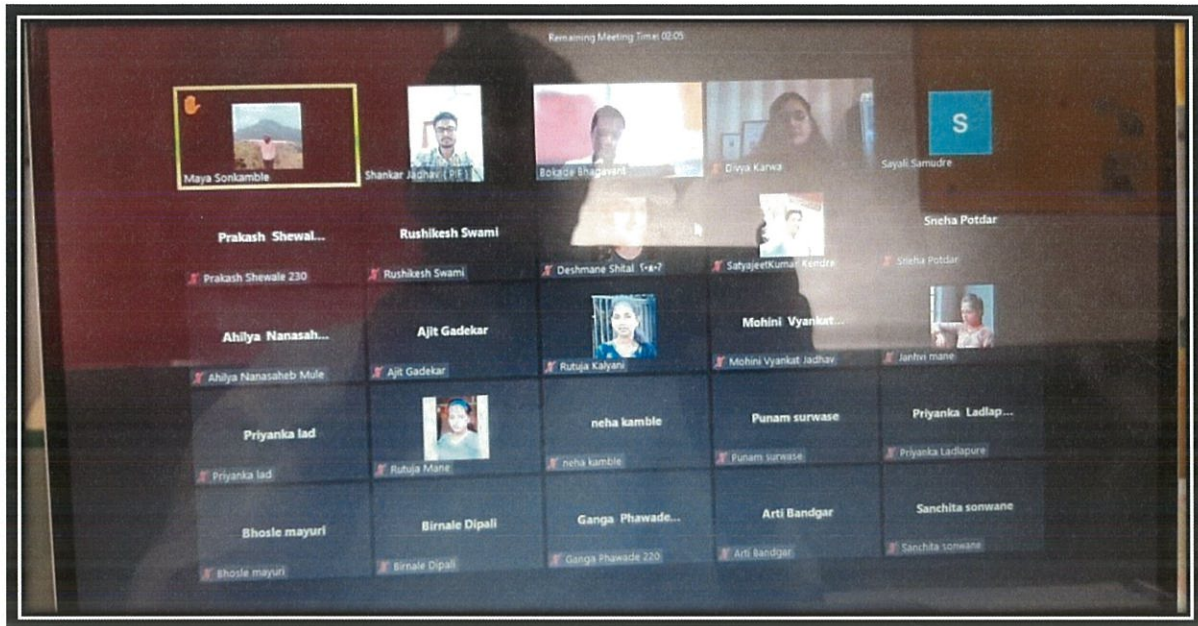

The program was successful. The resource person effectively expressed his ideas about the topic, which was an enriching experience for the participants. The Student Association was also formed by the efforts of department and the students. Participants were quite happy with the interaction of the session.
