B) Report

i. Title: A Seminar on “Financial Literacy and Insurance Awareness in Digital Era.”

ii. Introduction:

The Faculty of Commerce organized a seminar on “Financial Literacy and Insurance Awareness in the Digital Era” with the objective of enhancing students’ understanding of basic financial concepts and the importance of insurance in today’s technology-driven environment. In the digital era, financial decisions are increasingly made through online platforms, making financial awareness essential for students as future earners and responsible citizens.

iii. Objectives of the Programme/ issues addressed:

- To create awareness about basic financial literacy among students.
- To familiarize students with digital financial services and insurance platforms.
- To develop responsible financial decision-making skills among students.
- To highlight the role of technology in modern financial and insurance systems.

iv. Details of Participants:

Total participants 109 (Male 58 and Female 51) attended the A Seminar on Financial Literacy and Insurance Awareness in Digital Era.

v. Brief Summary of Events/ Sessions:

The seminar was chaired by respected Dr. M. H. Gavhane, Principal, RSM, Latur. The seminar commenced with a welcome address by Dr. P. S. Trimukhe, Head, Faculty of Commerce. The seminar was conducted in an informative and interactive manner. The seminar was conducted for students of the Commerce faculty. Resource person Mr. Umesh Deshpande explained key concepts such as saving, investment, budgeting, risk management, and insurance planning. Special emphasis was given to digital financial tools, online banking, digital payment systems, and e-insurance services. Real-life examples were used to help students understand how insurance protects individuals against financial risks in the digital age. Students actively participated in the seminar and showed keen interest in the topics discussed. They interacted with the speakers by asking questions related to digital frauds, online insurance policies, and safe financial practices.

vi. Conclusion, with Feedback on the Programme:

The seminar proved to be highly informative and beneficial for commerce students. It contributed to their overall financial awareness and encouraged them to adopt responsible financial behavior in the digital environment. The Faculty of Commerce believes that such programs play a vital role in preparing students for real-world financial challenges.
