B) Report

i. Title:

Two Days Workshop on Investment Awareness

ii. Introduction

The Faculty of Commerce organized a Two-Day Online Workshop on Investment Awareness to promote financial literacy among students and female faculty members. The event aimed to educate learners about different investment avenues, risk management, and the importance of early financial planning. The workshop also emphasized the role of disciplined investment behavior in achieving long-term financial goals.

iii. Objectives of the Programme/ issues addressed:

1. To create awareness about various investment options available in the financial market.
2. To educate participants on the importance of savings, investment, and financial planning.
3. To develop understanding of risk, return, and diversification in investment decisions.
4. To familiarize participants with the working of stock markets and mutual funds.
5. To motivate participants to make informed and responsible investment choices.

iv. Details of Participants:

Total participants 163 (48 Male and 115 Female) were present for the workshop.

v. Brief Summary of Events/ Sessions

The workshop was conducted over two days and included lectures, discussions, and interactive sessions.

The First day, dated 06.10.2025, focused on Women's Financial Empowerment. The resource person Mr. Mandeep Maunder, Investment Consultant, HDFC Bank instructed on practical aspects such as investment planning, mutual funds, SIPs, and portfolio diversification. Demonstrations on using online investment tools and reading market indicators were also provided. The both sessions were interactive, with students and female faculty members asking questions and sharing their perspectives on financial management

On the Second day, dated 07.10.2025, the resource person Ms. Smriti Pachoree, Financial Advisor, SEBI introduced the fundamentals of investment, the difference between savings and investment, and the significance of setting financial goals. Students actively participated in discussions on risk-return analysis and inflation's impact on investments.

vi. Conclusion, with Feedback on the Programme:

The Two-Day Online Workshop on Investment Awareness proved to be highly informative and engaging. It successfully enhanced students' and faculty members understanding of investment planning, financial literacy, and market functioning. The participants gained valuable insights into making sound financial decisions for their future. The Faculty of Commerce expressed gratitude to the experts and organizers for making the event successful and beneficial to all attendees.
