B) Report

i. Title:

Elocution Competition for the selection of Commerce Association Office Bearers-2026-27

ii. Introduction:

The Faculty of Commerce organized an Elocution Competition on 23rd July 2026 to select the Office Bearers of the Commerce Association for the academic year 2026–27. The competition aimed to identify students with effective communication skills, confidence, leadership qualities, and the ability to express their ideas on contemporary business and social issues. It gives self-boost and confidence to students to speak in front of large audience.

iii. Objectives of the Programme/ issues addressed:

1. To select capable Office Bearers for the Commerce Association.
2. To develop public speaking and communication skills among students.
3. To encourage confidence, leadership, and critical thinking.
4. To provide a platform for expressing opinions on current issues.
5. To motivate the students to take part in extracurricular activities.
6. To encourage students to take active part in Commerce Association.

iv. Details of Participants:

Total participants 42 (Male 18 and Female 24) were present for Elocution Competition.

v. Brief Summary of Events/ Sessions:

The Faculty of Commerce has organized an Elocution Competition on 23rd July 2026. The competition witnessed enthusiastic participation from students. The event provided an excellent opportunity for students to demonstrate their communication and leadership abilities. The performances reflected their awareness of current issues like Digital Economy, Social Media, Online Shopping and AI in Education and their ability to present logical arguments confidently. Based on the overall performance, suitable students were identified by the judges namely Ms. Aakanksha Balsaraf and Ms. Amruta Savalsure for the selection of the Commerce Association Office Bearers for the academic year 2026–27.

vi. Conclusion, with Feedback on the Programme:

The Elocution Competition was conducted successfully and achieved its objectives. It helped in identifying talented and confident students who possess leadership potential while also enhancing the speaking and presentation skills of all participated students. The Faculty of Commerce appreciated the active involvement of students and the successful conduct of the program.
