B) Report

i. Title of the Report National Webinar on Multilingualism and Language Diversity in the Classroom

ii. Introduction

Department of English conducted a national webinar on Multilingualism and Language Diversity in the Classroom on 27th August 2022. Dr. Amol Padwad, Director, Center for English language Education (CELE), Dr B R Ambedkar University, Delhi was the resource person the webinar.

iii. Objectives of the Programme

- To understand the problems of multilingualism while teaching English.
- To discuss effective methodologies to handle the language diversity in the classroom.
- To orient the participants about the effective strategies for academic improvement of the mixed ability learners.

iv. Details of Participants

124 students from UG and PG programs, 349 teachers and 6 non-teaching staff attended the program.

v. Brief Summary of Events/ Sessions

The webinar was conducted through online platform of Google Meet. Dr Chandrashekhar Dawane welcomed the guest and anchored the program. Dr Anuja Jadhav gave Convenor's address. A faculty of English Mr Dipak Thorat acquainted the chief guest with the participants. Resource person Amol Padwad spoke in detail about multilingualism and language diversity in the classroom, Through his lecture the participants were oriented about how to overcome the problems of multilingualism in the Indian schooling. He also focused on the fact that no readymade solution is available to handle the language diversity classrooms; however a teacher through his dynamic skills, technological aids and curricular activities can effectively impart language skills. In the question answer session he also commented on the utility and futility of standard pronunciation while teaching and learning English.

vi. Conclusion, with Feedback on the Programme

Participants were content with the academic discussion in the webinar. The webinar has opened the new vistas for further research in English language teaching.
