B) Report

I. Title: Film Fest

II. Introduction:

On the 6th of January 2024, the Department of English hosted a Film Fest featuring the screening of the film titled "Sirf Ek Banda Kaafi Hai," catering to enthusiasts of the cinematic arts. Mr Karan Gaikwad and Miss Pratima Khose meticulously coordinated the event. Attendance was extended to encompass all students and faculty members affiliated with the institution.

III. Objectives of the Workshop:

- Familiarizing students with the legal framework within the courtroom setting.
- Enhancing comprehension of prevailing social dynamics.
- Cultivating awareness regarding women's safety and related concerns within society.

IV. Details of Participants:

Students from the UG program and 5 teachers attended the program

V. Brief Summary of Events:

A notice regarding the 'Film Fest' was disseminated widely across the students, faculty, and staff of the institution, inviting their involvement in the event. The head of the Department, Dr Anuja Jadhav, gave a brief introduction to the movie. The participation of students in this initiative was notably fervent. The film "Sirf Ek Banda Kaafi Hai" stands out as an exemplary work within the domain of cinematic artistry. This cinematic production portrays the story of a legal practitioner who, equipped with substantial evidence, strives to champion the cause of justice for a victim of sexual assault. It prominently highlights the prevalent theme of societal power dynamics and the relentless pursuit of truth within the cinematic narrative.

VI. Conclusion:

The students derived pleasure from the film and articulated its contentment subsequent to its screening. The activity garnered widespread appreciation among the student population, with numerous individuals expressing a desire for similar events to be organized within the institution. The Film Fest program, thus, can be deemed successful based on these positive responses and requests for further comparable initiatives.
