B) Report

i. Title

Street Play Drive on “Gender Sensitization”

ii. Introduction

Gender sensitization is the process of creating awareness regarding gender equality issues and modifying the behavior and views that people hold about themselves and other genders. This process helps in examining people's “personal attitudes and beliefs and questioning the 'realities' they thought they know.” Street play is an effective and engaging strategy to bring out social change by raising awareness about social issues. Students of Rajarshi Shahu Mahavidyalaya showcased a street play depicting how to fight against gender bias and about sensitizing on discrimination free India, at Latur. This program was organized by Department of Biotechnology and Food Processing Technology, Rajarshi Shahu Mahavidyalaya, Latur (Autonomous) on 05.02.2020.

iii. Objectives of the Programme/ issues addressed

- To create awareness amongst students and community regarding the gender sensitization.
- To provide an integrated and interdisciplinary approach to understand the social and cultural constructions of gender.
- To demonstrate a society that women and men enjoy the same opportunities, rights and obligations in all spheres of life.

iv. Details of Participants

10 Participants (05 Male and 05 female) attended.

v. Brief Summary of Events/ Sessions

The students of Biotechnology perform street play on gender sensitization. In this street play act 10 students were performed and delivered a message to the society on gender sensitization. In the act some important points are shown like role of family in the understanding of gender issues, Gender stereotypes, Gender Sensitivity in education, Challenges in society. As a message sent out strongly to the public the theatre group says we will have to shun the laidback attitude and speak up and act. Blaming the police and administration does not suffice. The act encourages all to raise your voice when harassment happens.

vi. Conclusion with Feedback on the Programme

The play was beneficial for students and public group, which will help them to show how much they can do about ending the problem of gender sensitization. The play suggest, boys and girls should be treated equally right from the childhood so that they should not prone to gender discrimination. The students expressed their opinions and concerns regarding gender issues and agreed that gender sensitization is the need of the hour.
