B) Report

i. Title:

Awareness Programme on Government and Institutional Policies for Biotechnology Students

ii. Introduction:

Over these last few years, we have witnessed an encouraging growth in the Biotechnology Sector. The thrust areas of today's emerging biotechnology comprise genomics, recombinant DNA technology, proteomics and bioinformatics. In recent time agriculture, healthcare, social wellbeing, and environmental management industries have contributed well to global economy. The advancement of biotechnology as a successful industry confronts many challenges related to research and development, creation of investment capital, technology transfer and technology adoption patentability and intellectual property, affordability in pricing, regulatory issues and public confidence. In these contexts, in order to aware and update the students of biotechnology, department has organized an awareness programme on 7th January 2023 on the topic entitled "Government and Institutional policies for Biotechnology students". On this occasion Department invited Hon'ble Principal Dr. Mahadev Gavhane as a resource person. The target group for this programme was Biotechnology students of UG as well as PG. The programme gives an overview about to get familiar with new Government Educational policies, new job opportunities, various competitions for Biotechnology students. Total 120 students participated in this programme.

iii. Objectives of the Programme/ issues addressed:

- To build and strengthen a strong education, research and translation ecosystem for Biotechnology students.
- To make Biotechnology students a global player for the deployment of new and emerging technologies in different aspects.
- To build and nurture a vibrant start-up, entrepreneurial and industrial base in the Biotechnology, connecting the academia and industry.

iv. Details of Participants:

120 participants (47 Male and 73 female) attended the programme.

v. Brief Summary of Events/ Session:

The Awareness Programme on "Government and Institutional Policies for Biotechnology Students" was organized for all UG Biotechnology and PG Biotechnology students on dated 7th January 2023.
