B) Report:

i) Title: Women's Empowerment through Essay Writing Competition

ii) Introduction:

The department of Botany organized Essay writing Competition on the occasion of International Women's day. Women's Day is a global day celebrating the social, economic, cultural and political achievements of women. Significant activity is witnessed worldwide as groups come together to celebrate women's achievements. It is about women's equality in all its forms. For some, it is about fighting for women's rights. This programme is organized to highlight the importance of women because the story of women's struggle for equality belongs to neither single feminist nor to any one organization but to the collective effort of all who care about human rights. All of us should make international women's day as our day.

iii) Objectives of the programme:

1. To aware the students about gender equity.
2. To develop thinking and writing skills of students.
3. To discover essay writing talent from the student community.
4. To know the importance of women in the human's life.

iv) Details of participants: 37 (Students-29 and Teachers-08)

v) Brief summary of Events:

Department of Botany celebrated International Women's Day by organizing Essay writing competition on gender equity. 64 students participated in the competition with full enthusiasm and spirit. Prof. R. K. Mekle and Prof. D.S. Chavan examined the essays as an examiner. The competition was graced by Prof. S.N. Shinde, Vice Principal and Head of Department of Botany who encouraged the participants with his kind words, suggestions to participants.

vi) Conclusion, with feedback of Programme:

The competition helped the students to understand the problems of women's education and gender equity. This competition motivated the students for their participation in various events. This also developed interest of the students about essay writing and writing skills.
