B) Report:

i) Title: Women Empowerment Programme through Rangoli Competition.

ii) Introduction:

The theme for International Womens Day this year's observance is "Gender equality today for a sustainable tomorrow". The year 2022 is pivotal for achieving gender equality in the context of climate change, and environmental and disaster risk reduction, which are some of the greatest global challenges of the twenty-first century. Rangoli is a traditional form of fine art with highest involvement of women that brightens up an occasion and is believed to be harbinger of good luck. Beautiful patterns are created on the floor using colours. The talent and creativity of the students was well brought out in competition.

iii) Objectives of the programme:

1. To express our views in the form of rangoli
2. To inculcate creative, expressive and educational values.
3. To improve abstract thinking.

iv) Details of participants: 37 (Students-29 and Teachers-08)

v) Brief summary of Events:

Department of botany celebrated International Women's Day on 8 March 2022 by organizing rangoli competition with the theme Women Empowerment. Students of Botany department participated with full enthusiasm and spirits. Prof. S.N. Shinde, Vice Principal & Head of Department of Botany inaugurated the program. Other faculty members, students of UG and PG visited to department for observing Rangoli.

The competition was graced by Prof. S.N. Shinde, Vice Principal & Head of Department of Botany who encouraged the participants with his kind words, suggestions to participants.

vi) Conclusion, with feedback of Programme:

Students get awared about the social problems of women in society, spirit of women and the collective measures of women Empowerment. The competition helps to enrich the knowledge, creativity, Expressivity and educational values.
