B) Report

i. Title: Guest Lecture on the Occasion of International Day of Women and Girls in Science on “Career Opportunities for Women in STEM”

ii. Introduction

A substantial gender gap has persisted throughout the years at all levels of Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM) disciplines all over the world. Not only the gender equality and the empowerment of women and girls will be important for global economic development, but also for advancement in all other spheres. The International Day of Women and Girls in Science is a yearly commemoration established by the United Nations General Assembly to encourage women's full and equal access to and involvement in STEM areas. On this occasion Guest Lecture on “Career Opportunities for Women in STEM” was organized by Department of Computer Science on 11th February, 2023.

iii. Objectives of the Programme/ issues addressed:

- To encourage women's full and equal involvement in STEM fields (Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics)
- To celebrate the biggest day for women and girls in science
- To learn about the role of Women in Science to achieve 2030 agenda (Sustainable Development Goals).

iv. Details of Participants: 76 student participants (40 female, 36 male), 8 teachers

v. Brief Summary of Events/ Sessions:

Dr. Renuka Londhe delivered the concept note. Miss. P.S. Laturiya introduced the resource person. Resource Person Dr. K. S. Gomare Head, Department of Biotechnology, Dayanand Science College, Latur talked about the value of gender equality, addressed the current status of women and girls in STEM fields. Further she elaborated how women are transforming in every field of Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics. She provided information about the Career Opportunities for Women in STEM and also enlisted various funding agencies for research & development. Dr. Komal provided examples of Women Scientists of different areas who have contributed and currently performing at their highest level.

Chairperson and Principal Dr. Mahadev Gavhane has given presidential address and guided the students by giving information about honored women in various fields. Vote of Thanks was proposed by Miss. D. V. Sharma.

vi. Conclusion with feedback on the Programme:

The participants gained an understanding of the importance of women's participation in STEM disciplines for expanding the contribution of women to science, which would ultimately secure women's empowerment and gender balance in STEM subjects.
