B) Report

i. Title

Guest Lecture on Role of Soft Skill in Corporate Sector

ii. Introduction

Information Technology (IT) is a diverse field with numerous job opportunities and roles. In addition to technical skills, possessing the right soft skills can help the person to differentiate himself/herself from other person during the hiring process and advance your career. Some examples of soft skills like Communication, Organization, Analytical Abilities, Creativity, Project Management, Problem Solving etc. These soft skills make it easier for IT professionals to collaborate with others efficiently, improve productivity and demonstrate their dedication to the job to managers and supervisors.

iii. Objectives of the guest lecture

- To get acquainted with soft skills needed in corporate sector
- To enhance placement ratio

iv. Details of Participants

79 participants (Male 35 and Female 44) attended the guest lecture

v. Brief Summary of Events / Sessions

The resource person of seminar/guest lecture explained why soft skills are essential for IT professionals or in corporate sector. He focused on importance of soft skills.

Once employed, these skills can help you better apply your technical abilities. Also he guided on time management and organizational skills can help to complete tasks on time. Similarly, resourcefulness and decision-making skills can help to solve challenges efficiently by applying knowledge from previous experiences. Additionally, soft skills help to mold as per the changing trends and technologies in fast-paced IT work environment. The programme coordinator Mrs. Chandraprabha Kulkarni expressed vote of thanks.

vi. Conclusion, with Feedback on the guest lecture

This guidance provided through this seminar guest lecture was helpful for development of soft skills among students and enable them to become a successful IT professional.
