B) Report

i. Title: Two Week Workshop on CSIR-UGC NET, SET, GATE PET Entrance Examination

ii. Introduction:

The Council of Scientific and Industrial Research (CSIR) has entrusted the responsibility of conducting CSIR-UGC NET in CBT mode to NTA. CSIR-UGC NET is a test being conducted to determine the eligibility 'for Junior Research Fellowship (JRF) and for Lectureship/Assistant Professor' in Indian universities and colleges subject to fulfilling the eligibility criteria laid down by UGC. The Graduate Aptitude Test in Engineering (GATE) Examination is conducted jointly by the seven Indian Institutes of Technology at Mumbai, Delhi, Guwahati, Kanpur, Kharagpur, Chennai, Roorkee & Indian Institute of Science at Bengaluru on behalf of the National Coordination Board – GATE, The Department of Higher Education, Ministry of Education (MoE), Government of India. State Level Eligibility Test or SLET is an exam to determine the eligibility of applicants for colleges' and universities' lectureships. PhD admissions are often for the candidates with a master's degree in any subject. Mostly, these candidates do not have any prior experience in research work. PhD entrance tests help universities understand if a candidate is eligible for pursuing a PhD course or not.

The aim of this workshop to guide the PG student about different competitive examination of biological science.

iii. Objectives of the Programme / issues addressed:

- To determine the eligibility for junior research fellowship (JRF) and Lecturship '
- To make students competent for all Ph.D entrance examination.
- To test students' knowledge in subjects like Engineering and Science.

iv. Details of Participants:

66 participants (17 male and 49 female) attended the workshop.

v. Brief Summary of Events/ Sessions:

Faculty members of this department conduct the session in the workshop along with resource persons from different colleges. We were conducted practice exam at the end of each week of this workshop .

vi. Conclusion, with Feedback on the Programme:

Students are fully satisfied by the efforts taken by department. It helps students to study and Crackdown the various competitive examinations and updates the knowledge of life science.
