B) Report

i. Title: Poster Presentation on the Occasion of World Elephant Day

ii. Introduction

The Department of Zoology and Fishery Science, Rajarshi Shahu Mahavidyalaya (Autonomous), Latur, organized a Poster Presentation and Awareness Program on the occasion of World Elephant Day on 12th August 2025. The program was conducted to promote awareness about the importance of elephant conservation and to highlight their vital role in maintaining forest ecosystems and biodiversity.

iii. Objectives of the Program

- To celebrate World Elephant Day and spread awareness regarding elephant conservation.
- To educate students about the ecological importance of elephants as keystone species.
- To highlight threats such as habitat loss, poaching, and illegal ivory trade.
- To encourage student participation in wildlife awareness and conservation activities.

iv. Details of Student Participation

A total of 21 students (6 male and 15 female) actively participated in the poster presentation event.

v. Brief Summary of the Event

The program began with an introductory session based on the theme "Protect Elephants, Protect Nature." Faculty members guided students and explained the significance of elephants in forest ecosystems. The session emphasized elephants as "ecosystem engineers" because they help in seed dispersal, maintain forest structure, and support ecological balance.

vi. Outcomes of the Program

- Students gained awareness about the ecological and environmental role of elephants.
- The program strengthened knowledge regarding threats to elephants and conservation measures.
- It encouraged student involvement in wildlife protection activities.
- The poster presentation enhanced creativity, communication skills, and scientific thinking.
- The event successfully promoted conservation awareness among students and staff.
