

Inauguration of Economics Students Association

The Inaugural function of Economics student association was organized on 21 September 2019 by the members of the association. The programmed was held under the president ship of honorable principal Dr. Mahadev Gavhane, The chief guest was Dr. Arun Tawar Ho D Dept. of Economics DSM College Parbhani. Speaking on the occasion Tawar sir has explained the dynamic role of economics in framing the policies of the government. He has emphasized on the role of economists and the contribution the economists can make in the growth and development of the economy as a whole. On this occasion all the professors of the department and the students of UG and PG were present.