B) Report

i. Title: Workshop on Strategies in Implementation of NEP-2020

ii. Introduction

The National Education Policy 2020 outlines the vision for Indian Education System. It rests on 5 pillars Access, Equity, Quality, Affordability and Accountability. The ultimate goal of the policy is to produce excellent people, who are able to reason and act, courageous and resilient with scientific mindset and creative imagination. The implementation of such an ambitious policy is a complex task. In order to discuss the strategies in implementation of NEP-2020, the workshop was organized.

iii. Objectives of the Program/ issues addressed

- To create awareness about NEP-2020.
- To discuss challenges in implementation of NEP-2020.
- To encourage staff members to adopt new teaching learning methodologies in implementation of NEP-2020.

iv. Details of Participants

126 faculty members (48 Female and 78 Male) participated in the workshop.

v. Brief Summary of Events/ Sessions

The workshop started with concept note and introduction to the resource person by Dr Abhijit Yadav. Dr Pandit Vidyasagar, Former Vice Chancellor, Swami Ramanand Teerth Marathwada University, Nanded started the session with history of education commissions in India. He discussed the shortcomings of present education system and highlighted the objectives of National Education Policy 2020. He discussed the teaching learning framework to be implemented under NEP-2020, multidisciplinary and holistic education, academic bank of credits, internationalization of education, research, multiple entry multiple exit, etc. He suggested to focus on emerging areas like artificial intelligence, data science, virtual reality, augmented reality, human values, Indian knowledge system, etc. Dr Mahadev Gavhane delivered presidential address. He said college will implement NEP-2020 in letter and spirit. Dr Omprakash Shahapurkar proposed vote of thanks.

vi. Conclusion, with Feedback on the Program

The workshop created awareness about NEP-2020 among the staff members. The implementation strategies were discussed. The participants took part in discussion and presented their views.
