Case Study-Blood Donation

This case study takes in-depth overview on the blood donation. Total 990 blood bags were collected from Academic Year 2018-19 to 2022-23

Camps for blood donation are those where blood is collected from healthy donors for individuals in need of blood from different blood groups. Rajarshi Shahu Mahavidyalaya, Latur (Autonomous), conducts blood donation camps on a regular basis. Organization of Blood donation camps in the institution is a NSS Unit and students' initiative. Thus, it aimed at the practices to collect blood from the voluntary healthy donors and create awareness about blood donation.
