

Department of Food processing Technology

Capability enhancement skill lecture – Dairy Industry: Overview and emerging trends

Summary Report

1. Title of Programme:	Dairy Industry: Overview and emerging trends
2. Name of organizing department	Department of food processing technology
3. Name of Coordinator of programme	Dr. G. B. Sathe
4. Date of the programme	02/01/2021
5. Venue	Department of food processing technology
6. Target group	B.Voc and B.Sc. Students
7. Number of participants	120
8. Name and details of resource person	Mr. Ashok Aghav, Research Scientist at Schreiber Dynamix Pvt. Ltd. Baramati.
9. Total expenditure for programme	NIL
10. Source of funding	NIL

Report on Capability enhancement skill lecture – Dairy Industry: Overview and emerging trends

Capability enhancement skill lecture was organized by Dr. G. B. Sathe for B. Voc. (FPT) and B.Sc.(BT) Students on 2/01/2021 from 3:00 pm to 4:30 pm by department of food processing technology online due to COVID 19 pandemic situation on Microsoft Teams app. Students of B. Voc. (FPT), B.Sc (BT) and some faculty members were present to attend lecture. Total students were registered for Capability enhancement skill lecture. The lecture delivered by Mr. Ashok Aghav, he working as Research Scientist at Schreiber Dynamix Pvt. Ltd. Baramati.

Following are the Objectives of the lecture

1. To connect students with industry people.
2. To conduct interactive session for students with professional who can share his valuable knowledge and experience.
3. To create awareness among students with various techniques which used in industry.

Total 120 students participated for Capability enhancement skill lecture and some faculty members were present for lecture. The lecture was arranged online due to pandemic situation at department of food processing and technology. (A separate list of participant attached).

Firstly Dr. Vihang Patil sir given welcome speech of the lecture after that he handover the further lecture to Mr. Ashok Aghav. Sir explained about overview of dairy industry and various emerging trends which are used in dairy industry. He described about global overview of dairy industry, milk world scenario, and future trends of global dairy industry. Also highlighted about operation flood and dairy cooperatives and Innovations. Indian milk production in 2020 was 187.7MT. India ranks first in milk production. He explained different Govt. Initiative in dairy farming, National & State govt. Scheme. He told about Indian dairy industry growth drivers and key challenges along with he explained about emerging trends in dairy industry and future prospects of dairy industry. At the end of lecture, vote of thanks given by Dr. Gitanjali Sathe.

Lastly it conclude that, the Capability enhancement skill lecture was useful, informative and it will help to students in their studies