B) Title: - A Report on Three Days Outreach Program on “ CSR Training”

Department of Biotechnology and Placement cell of Rajarshi Shahu Mahavidyalaya (Autonomous) Latur, hosts a variety of hands-on enrichment programs throughout the year for the final year students. In last week of December 2020 (from 22 to 24th Dec) a three days outreach program for the students of BSc. Biotechnology Third Year was organized by Placement Cell in Collaboration with Rubicon and Barclays Pune. The Objective of program was to add value to this technical education and to produce top quality biotech graduates with global competencies, by providing a meaningful Practical experience, interview skills, etiquettes, logical and resonating session, and stress management in a multicultural and multilingual professional environment. Total 120 students from BSc Biotechnology were registered prior to this program and they were divided into two batches. Due to Covid 19 Pandemic situation this year the programme was organized on online mode (ZOOM). Two what's app group namely RSD-RSM batch 1 and RSD-RSM batch 2 was prepared one day before the program, each batch contain 60 participants, mentor, Coordinator, Placement officer and Trainers from Rubicon. Miss Monika and Gaurank worked as a trainer from Rubicon. On the Day 1 (22Dec) Head, Department of Biotechnology inaugurated and briefly introduced about Department and College. Miss Deepika Patil HR manager from Rubicon group gave an idea about the training program, the syllabus, objectives and benefits of such outreach program. Dr. Rahul Athawale, placement officer of college introduced the working and success story of placement cell, how it's helping student to grab the job opportunities and promises to organize many such program for the students of Biotechnology. Mr. S. D. Kadam proposed vote of thanks and on the behalf of organizing committee announced the beginning of program.

For next three days from morning 10AM to 2PM, Miss. Monika and Mr. Gaurank trained our student's batch wise on various topics. Students were very happy and satisfied. The session covered various topics like Ice breaking, SWOT analysis, Public Speaking, Presentation Skill, Email Etiquette, telephone etiquette, Body language, Group Discussion, Personal Interview and many more which definitely helped our students to improve in skills to work and behave in corporate culture. This also helped students to identify their strength, weakness, opportunities and threats also how to impress by neat dressing and keeping personal hygiene, positive body language and many good habits in corporate sectors. In the conclusion students gave very positive feedback to organizing committee and made short video with their all positive feedback and self-motivated experience after the training session. Such program definitely bring value to the participating students who apply practical skills, interpersonal and communication skills and ultimately leadership skills to attain deliverables in corporate world.
