B) Report of Event Dated 17.02.2022

i. Title:

One Day Workshop on “Preparation of Research Manuscript: Basics, Ethics & Requisites (PRM BER-2022)” (Under Faculty Training Program)

ii. Introduction:

Whether it is through reading, writing, reviewing, or suggesting topics for discussion, the academicians are connected to journals. The current commentary's goal is to inspire aspiring authors by offering advice on how to navigate the occasionally difficult road between having an idea for a paper and finishing it and getting it published.

While there are many reasons to write a paper, including to share research observations, submit one's ideas, and conclusions for critical evaluation by peers, provide guidance to improve as well as advocate policy change and support personal academic advancement. Writing also offers an excellent learning experience, fosters critical thinking, and improves the ability to be more succinct in written communications. Also, the researchers should be well acquainted with the research ethics and the basics of research. Taking the same leaves, workshop is arranged by Research Advisory Committee (RAC) of college aids in developing the institution's capacity for research.

iii. Objectives of the Workshop/ Issues Addressed:

- To make the targeted group familiar with various indexing & abstracting services, the fundamental format of a scientific paper that will be reviewed by peers.
- To create the key points that will be emphasized in the various parts of a scientific article.
- To make it easier to glean the "principal point" or main message from the important findings.
- To determine the three main messages and arguments of the findings and discover the key elements
- To put the primary findings and advice from the data into writing.
- To confront the targeted group with Ethical Research, Retraction, Malpractices, and Predatory Journals, and the ways to avoid the same.

iv. Details of Participants:

Eight (119) participants (Male 83 and 36 Female) from the college have attended the Faculty Training Workshop.

v. Brief Summary of Events/ Sessions:

Hon. Principal Mahadev Gavhane of Rajarshi Shahu Mahavidyalaya (Autonomous), Latur, officially launched the programme. Two resource people were available for the workshop's two sessions: Dr. Abhijit Yadav, the IQAC Coordinator and Dr. Kundan Tayade, an Assistant Professor of Analytical Chemistry, at Rajarshi Shahu Mahavidyalaya (Autonomous), Latur. The programme was attended by every college faculty member. Dr. Yadav gave the attendees an explanation of the structure of a research paper, starting with the names of the authors and their affiliations, followed by the abstract, keywords, introduction, materials and methods, results and discussion, conclusion, acknowledgements, and references. He advised against using grandiose language in the research manuscript. During his presentation, the expert also discussed the submission and post-submission processes.

Additionally, during the second session, Dr. Tayade went into more detail about his presentation on a variety of Indexing & Abstracting Services, Top Publications Suggested by Google, UGC Care List, Scopus & Web of Science indexed Journals, The Research Process, A Six Step Approach to Writing for Publication, IMRAD Format, premier database of profiles of scientists / researchers such as VIDWAN, Google Scholar, ResearchGate, ORCID ID (digital identifier for Researcher), etc. The speaker extended his talk on Ethical Research and Manuscript Retraction. He wrapped up the session by discussing various useful research tools, like Tenses in Journal/Thesis and Reference Writing Tool, Paraphrasing Tool, Grammar Check Tool, etc.

vi. Conclusion, with Feedback on the Workshop:

The presentation was very informative and succeeded in reaching its goals. The objective of letting the participants familiar with various indexing & abstracting services, the fundamental format of a scientific paper is achieved. The participants availed training on Ethical Research, Retraction, Malpractices, and Predatory Journals, and the ways to avoid the same. The representative faculty amongst the attendants of the workshop expressed satisfaction towards the Faculty Training Program conducted by Research Advisory Committee (RAC) and expressed appreciation for the same.
