i. Title:

One Day “Ph.D. Student Research Symposium (PSRS-2022)”

ii. Introduction:

All Ph.D. students and their research supervisors working in a range of areas of research have an open-invitation event to attend the Ph.D. Student Symposium. It is aimed at providing a common platform for current doctoral students enrolled in the institute, both full-time and part-time to explore the ideas of various researchers. The symposium invites researchers to make use of the chance to network with other researchers, talk about their research, and get input from peers and research professionals. Taking the same leaves, the symposium was arranged by Research Advisory Committee (RAC) of the college intending in developing institutional research capabilities.

iii. Objectives of the Workshop/ Issues Addressed:

- To organize a network for Ph.D. students conducting research in various fields to share ideas and encourage one another.
- To share with your peers any useful feedback you have on particular research issues, challenges, or concerns.
- To receive recommendations on their research topics, issues, and worries are given by research professionals with experience as supervisors.

iv. Details of Participants:

Eight (30) participants (Male 23 and 07 Female) from the college attended the Symposium.

v. Brief Summary of Events/ Sessions:

Hon. Vice-Principal Mr. S.N. Shinde of Rajarshi Shahu Mahavidyalaya (Autonomous), Latur, officially launched the programme. The programme was attended by Research Supervisors and the research scholars pursuing Ph.D. under their guidance. Dr. Tayade gave the attendees an explanation of the State of Art to write the manuscript and thesis. He advised making use of Online Research tools.

Followed by the talk by the Resource Person, Ph.D. students shared their research work and ideas with PowerPoint Presentation (PPT). The Peer and the Research Experts have given recommendations on the research work presented by the research fellows.

vi. Conclusion, with Feedback on the Workshop:

Young aspirants pursuing Ph.D. have become more enthusiastic about their future research endeavors. The Researchers depicted satisfaction with the recommendations provided by the research experts and peers.
