

“विद्ये विना मति गेली
मति विना नीति गेली;
नीति विना गति गेली,
गति विना वित्त गेले,
वित्ता विना शुद्र खचले,
इतके अनर्थ एका अविद्येने केले”

INTRODUCTION:-

Education is a very useful thing in human life. without getting education especially formal education, people have to struggle a lot for having dignified and peaceful life. Because uneducated person cannot deal with lot of problems, where Educational qualification is required. so formal education enhances the qualities of a human being, formal education gives a kind of a confidence to any person. Formal education makes a person capable to take responsibility of their own life, so lot of importance is given to the formal education. According to Swami Vivekanand, Education should aim at reforming the human mind.

Social reformers like Mahatma Phule and Savitribai Phule also gave an emphasis on formal education; especially they have given importance to girls education.

In Indian Society in 19th century, even in today's progressive world, we can easily find male domination and patriarchal social structure in our society, it is not very constructive or helpful to women's life. Male dominating culture gives very low status to women, which leads various social problems in women's life.

So in 19th century, Mahatma Phule and Savitribai Phule decided to fight against such male domination in society and patriarchal mindset of society and support women's education from all sectors for society.
