B) Report

i. Title:

Rangoli Competition: 'Balance for Better' on the occasion of Savitribai Phule Jayanti

ii. Introduction:

Savitribai Phule was a Maharashtrian social reformer, educator, and poet. In Maharashtra, she and her husband, Mahatma Jyotiba Phule, performed a significant and crucial part in promoting women's rights in India. She is regarded as a forerunner of India's feminist movement. Gender equality is focused on providing men and women with the same equal opportunities. Gender equity aims to right past wrongs that have disadvantaged women. To commemorate Savitribai Phule birth anniversary, a Rangoli competition called "Balance for Better" was held in collaboration with ICC of College.

iii. Objectives of the Programme / issues addressed:

1. To create an awareness regarding gender equality amongst students and society
2. To explore the artistic skills in students

iv. Details of Participants:

16 participants (04 Male and 12 Female) attended the competition

v. Brief Summary of Events/ Sessions

16 students participated in the rangoli competition. The Rangoli competition inaugurated by Vice Principal Smt. Sucheta Waghmare in presence of ICC chairman Dr. K. G. Maske and Members Dr. Anuja Jadhav, Mrs. Swati Sawant and staff members.

The students drew exquisite rangolis to express their views on how gender equality might bring to a better world. Few chose slogans to include in their rangolis, while others used their artistic abilities to portray their feelings. The rangolis on the flooring added vibrancy to the room, making it difficult for the judges to choose just a few. The judges reached their final conclusions after taking into account the judging criteria. The best rangolis are admired with prizes.

vi. Conclusion, with Feedback on the Programme

Students thought about gender equity and expressed their feelings through the rangoli art
