Agenda:

- 1) Discussion on the first year syllabus.
 - 2) Title of the Course I, II, III & IV.
 - 3) Any other subject with permission of the Chair.

Prof. Priti Pohekar, Chairman moved an agenda of the meeting.

It was discussed whether the title of Course I, II, III & IV need to be changed. All the members anonymously opined that for Course II, III & IV the present titles are very appropriate whereas, Dr. Bhagwansing Bainade suggested to change the title of Course I; it will be 'An Introduction of Public Administration'. The suggestion was supported by all and accepted.

In Course I, Unit II (f), the previous title '1961-1990: Period of Turbulence' will be updated as '1961- Onwards: Period of Turbulence' on Dr. Gaurav Jewalikar's suggestion.

Dr. Abhijit Pilkhane suggested that it is necessary to let know the students about previous planning system in India. Accordingly, the in the Course II, the topic 'NITI Ayog' is updated as 'NITI Ayog & Previous Planning Agency'.

In the Corse IV, the topics 'The Department of Revenue, Government of India' and 'Revenue & Forest Department, Maharashtra' were added by cancelling 'Ministry of Revenue' and 'Revenue Directorate'.

In the Bridge Course, Dr. Ajay Patil suggested to frame the contents which could create interest of the students in studying the discipline. Dr. Abhijit Pilkhane suggested to add Unit 2 as 'Role of Administration and It's Importance in Daily Life', Prof D.B. Sonkamble suggested to add Unit 4 as 'Relationship of Public Administration with other Social Sciences'.

The bridge course curricula was discussed and finalized.

Gaurav Jewalikar suggested that the video should be part of the reference material. Currently, students are giving priority to education through video. Also, the parent university has recognized the video as a separate reference material and has also given study board instructions regarding the production of the video. Against this background it was decided that video should be part of the reference literature. The separate list if video reference will be added was the decision made collectively.

Dr. Priti Pohekar expressed deep gratitude towards the Board for making an excellent curriculum for last 3 years.

At the end of the meeting, Prof C. D. Bansode moved the Vote of thanks.
