About Shiv Chhatrapati Shikshaun Sanstha, Latur

The Sanstha was established in 1970 for the welfare of underprivileged people. In the 1960s, the people of Marathwada were educationally backward. Along with this, there was a lack of facilities required to lead a decent life. The thought of providing quality education to the people ignited in our minds. With the aim of 'Pursuit of Excellence', Shiv Chhatrapati Shikshan Sanstha was established in Latur in 1968. The people who established the Sanstha are serving the institution till the date. The different seven branches of the institute are the spreading the light of knowledge.

About College:

Rajarshi Shahu Mahavidyala was established in 1970. To provide educational platform to the students in the region is our main motto. Our College is known for the academic autonomy and leadership. The tradition of our experiments in education, academic excellence and ability created the renowned Shahu Pattern in education. The Shahu Pattern is result of the constant hard work and dedication by the teaching and non-Teaching staff. The Shahu Pattern is known as Latur Pattern in education. The Pattern has developed a number of meritorious students, especially from rural region, in board and university exams. The Pattern has made us one of the excellent institutions in the educational field. 500 to 600 students of this College take admission in medical college every year. This is the only college from where maximum students are eligible for the medical and engineering college. This is the first college in Marathwada region who received the Autonomous status.

About Seminar:

The Hyderabad Freedom Struggle has been given the glorious status in the freedom struggle of India. This struggle is so spectacular and powerful that it can be compared to any event in the struggle of Indian independence. Many volunteers and revolutionaries took part in the struggle. Many of them sacrificed their life for the sake of independence.

The struggle faced political upheaval and bitter resistance.

This Marathwada Liberation War was based on the principle of secularism, except for the struggle between the freedom fighters and the Razakars. India got independence on 15 August 1947. India was included in the history of world as an independent country, But to assume that this independence was absolute independence would not be based on history, because the Tiranga flag of independent India was hoisted on the Red Fort of Delhi, but people in some parts of the country were under colonial domination and exploitation. About all the Princely States had been merged in India. But Kashmir, Junagadh and Hyderabad were not ready to merge in India. Independent Hyderabad, without merging in India, was going to be hinder the interest of not only the people but the whole country.

Hyderabad not merging with India & remaining independent was not only detrimental to the interests of the people but also the Interest of the country as a whole. India's independence was not going to be complete without the merger of the Hyderabad princely state in India.

The satyagraha and armed movement of the people of Hyderabad for the merger of the institution in India is known as the Marathwada Liberation Movement in the history of the Indian independence movement. The year is the 75th year of Hyderabad Freedom Movement. As well as India is celebrating Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav. So, on the occasion, we are going to organize national level seminar to highlight the important events of the freedom struggle, to motivate everyone to follow the thoughts of freedom fighters and to find out the marginalized elements.
